

AN ODE TO MY FATHER

Saina Agarwal

Without a word, without a sigh,
 Without a moan, without a cry,
 You supported me in my every endeavour,
 You have been with me forever.

You have been my guiding light throughout,
 You kept me from wandering about.
 Your inspiring words have urged me to strive,
 Your encouraging smile has brightened my life.

You set sail to my life's boat,
 To protect me, you became a fort.
 You always consoled me in times of sorrow,
 And taught me to be strong, to face tomorrow.

You accompanied me when I was battling alone,
 You stood beside me like a pillar, when everyone was gone.
 Your strong grip on my hand made me feel secure,
 You encouraged me to try, when of my capabilities I wasn't sure.

You wiped my tears when I felt blue ,
 For being my father, a billion thanks to you.
 Let it be today, tomorrow, or the day after...
 You were, you are, and you'll always be – my dear father.
